

THE ULTIMATE PRANX CASE

DIRECTOR: Claude Grégoire, Sylvain Guy

CAST: Gian Carlo Bono, Daniel Franck, Shannon McNally

SYNOPSIS:

Following a 911 call, a police car is dispatched at an isolated house near Franklin, Pennsylvania. Two battered young men are found in the house, one of them half-dead. A third man is seen roaming about on the front lawn, shell-shocked. Upon seeing the police officers, he blurts out: "... we were just playing... we didn't know things would get out of hand... she... she just couldn't take it..." "She" is in fact a young lady, invited over for dinner by one of the three young men. Unbeknownst to her, their romantic evening was filmed by eleven cameras, six of which were streaming live to the internet from 7:56 to 8:49 pm - that is until viewers' complaints led to the interruption of the live stream by the police.
